

Vol. 1 - No. 2

Greensburg, Indiana

July 24, 1959

THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

The President has no inspiration at the moment except that he is grateful for the 205 charter members "brought in" by his "agents" in the attempt to get the Society off the ground and into orbit. However a large membership isn't the only requisite for a good organization. Let us settle down now to the work ahead and come up with good programs, plan such projects that we can successfully carry out and create for the community an organization which will be a source of pride to us. What better way can these displaced Decatur County Hoosiers maintain their home ties, except through the medium of the Historical Society?

"Breathes there a man, with soul so dead, who to himself hath never said, this is my own, my native land."

BOUQUET OF THE MONTH

Elizabeth Power Barnett for her eighteen members to put Fugit township in the running.

Raymond Hern for his good work in Jackson Township.

THE LAST MEETING

The meeting was held as scheduled with thirty present including two officers. Mr. Hubert Hawkins, Director of the Indiana Historical Bureau spoke well on the subject "Fun and Frolic on the Frontier." It was generally agreed that the Billings School is a nice place for our meetings. Mr. Wolf, president of the Shelby Co. Society was a welcomed visitor and spoke briefly.

OCCASION: Regular (July) Meeting
SPEAKERS: Mrs. R. R. Powell
Mr. Hubert Stuhrenberg
Tuesday - August 4, 1959
Business: 7:30 PM
Program: 8:00 PM
PLACE: Billings Elementary School
W. Washington St.

Mrs. Powell of Indianapolis, the former Rena Mae Gilchrist of Greensburg will speak to us on a very timely topic - THE CRAIG COVERLID. Mrs. Powell is a descendant of the Craig family and as is her wont - will leave no covers unturned. Mr. Stuhrenberg the city editor of the Greensburg Daily News, will deal with the lighter side of Greensburg history as it existed in the past, his exact subject to be announced later.

BRING AS MANY GUESTS AS YOU LIKE.
EVERYBODY IS WELCOME.

Please note that the Billings Elementary School is on West Washington St., just off of U.S. 421 and that there are ample off-street parking facilities East of the building. The entrance is on Washington St., and the meeting will be held in the Multi-Purpose Room.
NO SMOKING PLEASE!

Bring your documents, mementos, artifacts, relics, pictures or keepsakes to the meetings for display.

Linger after the meeting and enjoy visiting with other nice people.

Clay Township and the Roy H. Miers family put us over the top in our membership campaign. Mr. Miers has the distinction of being our two-hundredth member.

July 16, 1959

Dear Editor:

This letter needs no signature. It expresses, I am sure, the feelings of all the members of the Decatur County Historical Society.

It was certainly gratifying to be a part of an organization which made such a definite contribution to the success of the recent centennial celebration. The committee to arrange a window display was appointed at the first regular meeting of the society, held just before the beginning of the celebration, because the nature of the newly organized group made it a duty to do so. The winning of second prize in the window display contest was not anticipated or even thought of, but was most welcome.

The committee appointed did well in deciding to center it's attention on a particular time in our history. The favorite period of our president, Paul Huber, being the Civil War, the theme "The Greensburg Story in Civil War Days" was a happy thought. With his fine collection of books on the subject as a nucleus, a fascinating assortment of maps, guns, documents, and other articles were collected by Mr. Huber and arranged in a most attractive and pleasing way by Helen Bussell. Other contributors were Cleo Reniger, Donald Minning and Jennie McKee.

Our thanks to these members who helped us put forward our best foot as we started out.

COMING EVENTS

A picnic!!! Bring your own food.

Next time a story of particular interest to the CASTOR-DAVIS-HAZEN family.

The Society has in it's collection the so-called GARLAND MILL PAPERS. These are letters of about 1900, some in long hand, some typewritten. Kingston had a post office then and Nashville, Ind., furnished barrel hoops for the mill. Invoices were for small amounts of money and A. G. Zierer had a general store in Batesville. There is a lot of local history here. Interesting too. Thank you Mr. Damsgard!

Incidentally who wants to bequeath the Society a filing cabinet? A good used typewriter would also be an asset.

THE BULLETIN

THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF DECATUR COUNTY

Vol. 1 - No. 4

Greensburg, Indiana

November 21, 1959

Dear Reader:

Do you want to read another book in which people of Civil War days live again - dreaming - scheming? It is Thomas and Marva Belden's SO FELL THE ANGELS. The Angels are : (1) Old Greenbacks", Samuel P. Chase, whose own life was plagued by a lack of greenbacks; (2) proud Kate, whose power as the "most influential political hostess Washington had ever known . . . was . . . the creation of her own personality"; and (3) His Excellency, General William Sprague, Governor of Rhode Island, First Volunteer of the War, who later became Senator Sprague - the millionaire husband of proud Kate - who was always Chase's daughter! Not one of these heeded the admonition of Cardinal Wolsey (in Shakespeare's King Henry VIII):

"I charge thee, fling away ambition;
By that sin fell the angels."

A book that is well worth the reading opines your Cousin Book-Worm.

THE LAST MEETING

This was such a success and so well attended, that it deserves special attention and we have asked one of the guests to write a special article for the occasion. Suffice it to say here, that the picnic should be held annually, something in the way of an extra-curricular activity, and sponsored by the younger fry of the organization. For young and old alike, Sunday, October 11th, was a memorable and happy occasion.

OCCASION: First annual dinner meeting and election of officers.
SPEAKER: Dr. Louis A. Warren.
TIME: Tuesday, December 1st.
6:30 P.M. FAST TIME.
PLACE: Masonic Temple, 116 W. Washington St., Greensburg, Indiana

RESERVATIONS

If you have not already been contacted, please call 3-7771 (Miss Helen Bussell) or 3-7775 (Paul Huber) by Friday, November 27th, if you plan to attend the dinner. Tickets are $1.50 each.

Dr. Louis A. Warren, director emeritus of the Lincoln National Life Foundation of Fort Wayne is perhaps America's greatest Lincoln scholar. Attending elementary school in Worchester, Massachusetts, he came to know the New England Lincolns. A student at Transylvania, an editor at Hodgenville, a resident of Elizabethtown, there copying thousands of court records pertaining to the Lincoln family, later moving to Indianapolis to continue his study of the Hoosier Lincoln in the archives there - we do not wonder at his stature nor that he is the foremost authority on Abraham Lincoln today.

The EARLY BIRDS, bless them, are those who without solicitation, and without further expense to the Society, and the time of its officers, have paid their 1960 membership fee. It is to be hoped that 197 others, to be exact, come forward with a one-dollar bill neatly stapled to a card with the member's name and address thereon. In the fine tradition of our organization, be an EARLY BIRD!

THE SOCIETY'S OFFICERS FOR 1959

President-----Paul H. Huber
Vice-President-Mrs. E. A. Porter
Secretary-----Mrs. Wm. Woodfill
Treasurer-----J. Elwin Gibson

DEDICATION

Samuel Alley, a Revolutionary War Soldier, who fought with the Virginia forces under General George Rogers Clark, was honored October 25th by having a white marble marker placed at his grave in the old N-a-u-v-o-o cemetery Northwest of Burney. The white satin veil bearing the Alley coat-of arms was drawn by George Alley and his son Samuel. Excerpts were given from Samuel Alley's book, ERROR REPROVED, printed at Bloomington, Indiana, in 1846. Lone Tree Chapter, D.A.R., dedicated and presented the marker in a ritualistic ceremony, and Mrs. E. A. Porter accepted the stone for the Alley family. The American Legion Color Guard presented colors and the Firing Squad fired the salute. "Taps" were sounded.

Descendants of Samuel Alley, members of Thomas Hendricks Chapter, C.A.R., helped in the ceremony by presenting the chapter colors, placing a wreath on the grave, and offering prayer.

INDIANA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

A letter has come to the President from Mr. Hubert H. Hawkins, Secretary of the Indiana Historical Society, requesting information regarding houses of architectural interest built between 1860 and 1900. He asks that we supply a snapshot along with certain data. In turn he hopes to publish a volume, well illustrated, of the best examples to be found in the state. He emphasizes the fact that small houses of interesting architectural detail should be included along with the more imposing ones. This assignment appeals to the President as being very worth while, and as being an interesting project too. The first committee will be asked to list and locate these old homes in the townships.

CENTENNIAL

The recent centennial of the Adams Methodist Church and the reenactment of its organization speaks eloquently for its having survived these hundred years. It is documented history that the first minister was the Reverend Brockway of neighboring Milford, who on this memorable occasion drove one horse (he had two) six miles over muddy roads to keep his appointment. Attending were the Deems, the Ryans and the Youngs, the seven charter members. Who is to know at the bi-centennial, who are the Deems, the Ryans and the Youngs of this present day, that have preserved so well their heritage? Only the records will tell.

PLEASE NOTE!

As an added feature of the December first dinner meeting, the members are asked to furnish old photographs for display. These old pictures should be mounted but not framed, such that they can be displayed on a table. The owners name, with the probable date of the picture along with other identification, should be written on the back. Group pictures of schools, family gatherings and clubs, scenes around the square, county officials, street fairs and gatherings, disasters, railroads, parades - all will be interesting subjects. Please leave pictures with Homer G. Meek or Paul H. Huber, at your earliest convenience.

AMENDMENTS

The following Proposed Amendments to the Constitution of The Historical Society of Decatur County, are up for second reading at the November (dinner)meeting:

- I. That sentence 1 of Article III shall be amended to read,
"The officers shall be a president, a first vice-president, a second vice-president, a recording secretary, a corresponding secretary, and a treasurer, who shall be elected annually."
- II. That sentences 2 and 3 of Article 7 shall be amended to read,
"A vice-president shall preside in the absence of the president. The secretaries shall keep the records of the Society and conduct its correspondence."
- III. That sentence 1 of Article 6 shall be amended to read,
"Meetings shall be held the last evening of the months of February, May, August and November."

WOODLARKLAND
The Hendersons

Sunday, October 11th, was a beautiful day -
The woods were very grand
The lark was on the wing
The land wore a jewel
Woodlark Lake.

Grant Henderson, energetic naturalist and poet, with Mrs. Henderson, was host to the Decatur County Historical Society at his beautiful wooded home - Woodlarkland three miles north of Enochsburg.

Most of the seventy-five or more guests had no difficulty finding the scenic Henderson place for the miles from all directions were marked with yellow ribbons on the fence rows. It is said that the Walter Lowe family and Frank Marlin did have a bit of trouble with the directions, but in Frank's case at least the error could be laid to a back seat driver - no names mentioned.

Preliminary to getting into excellent shape for enjoyment of the picnic dinner, the guests inspected the acres of nursery that Mr. Henderson operates with tidy precision and wandered through the orchard where they pulled their own apples that were plentiful on the place. The Henderson game cocks gave opposition to some of the guests in the orchard. We have not heard of any casualties other than Altha Clerkin who fled leaving her injuries behind her and James Shannon who may have suffered a torn pants leg. Mrs. Henderson explained the cocks beligerency. It seems that his wife had been missing for some weeks and she had returned to her mate the day before. He was very angry.

The guests assembled at the play house beside the lake with its bridge and fringe of trees. Paul Huber, society president, presided at the business meeting where proposed amendments were made for the By-Laws. Provisions were made for meetings on the last night of February, May, August and November. Paul presented the guest with all the marshmallows they could eat - stuck on sticks and grilled at the inside open fire and the outside fireplace. The mallows were good along with the warmth of the crackling fires and animated conversation. Food was spread on picnic tables and there was a continued passing of the coffee pots.

Our thanks to the Hendersons for a beautiful day.

- Contributed.

He asks that we supply a snapshot along with certain data. In turn he hopes to publish a volume, well illustrated, of the best examples to be found in the state. He emphasizes the fact that small houses of interesting architectural detail should be included along with the more imposing ones. This assignment appeals to the President as being very worth while, and as being an interesting project too. The first committee will be asked to list and locate these old homes in the townships.

CENTENNIAL

The recent centennial of the Adams Methodist Church and the reenactment of its organization speaks eloquently for its having survived these hundred years. It is documented history that the first minister was the Reverend Brockway of neighboring Milford, who on this memorable occasion drove one horse (he had two) six miles over muddy roads to keep his appointment. Attending were the Deems, the Ryans and the Youngs, the seven charter members. Who is to know at the bi-centennial, who are the Deems, the Ryans and the Youngs of this present day, that have preserved so well their heritage? Only the records will tell.

PLEASE NOTE!

As an added feature of the December first dinner meeting, the members are asked to furnish old photographs for display. These old pictures should be mounted but not framed, such that they can be displayed on a table. The owners name, with the probable date of the picture along with other identification, should be written on the back. Group pictures of schools, family gatherings and clubs, scenes around the square, county officials, street fairs and gatherings, disasters, railroads, parades - all will be interesting subjects. Please leave pictures with Homer G. Meek or Paul H. Huber, at your earliest convenience.

AMENDMENTS

The following Proposed Amendments to the Constitution of The Historical Society of Decatur County, are up for second reading at the November (dinner)meeting:

- I. That sentence 1 of Article III shall be amended to read,
"The officers shall be a president, a first vice-president, a second vice-president, a recording secretary, a corresponding secretary, and a treasurer, who shall be elected annually."
- II. That sentences 2 and 3 of Article 7 shall be amended to read,
"A vice-president shall preside in the absence of the president.
The secretaries shall keep the records of the Society and conduct its correspondence."
- III. That sentence 1 of Article 6 shall be amended to read,
"Meetings shall be held the last evening of the months of February, May, August and November."

WOODLARKLAND
The Hendersons

Sunday, October 11th, was a beautiful day -
The woods were very grand
The lark was on the wing
The land wore a jewel
Woodlark Lake.

Grant Henderson, energetic naturalist and poet, with Mrs. Henderson, was host to the Decatur County Historical Society at his beautiful wooded home - Woodlarkland three miles north of Enochsburg.

Most of the seventy-five or more guests had no difficulty finding the scenic Henderson place for the miles from all directions were marked with yellow ribbons on the fence rows. It is said that the Walter Lowe family and Frank Marlin did have a bit of trouble with the directions, but in Frank's case at least the error could be laid to a back seat driver - no names mentioned.

Preliminary to getting into excellent shape for enjoyment of the picnic dinner, the guests inspected the acres of nursery that Mr. Henderson operates with tidy precision and wandered through the orchard where they pulled their own apples that were plentiful on the place. The Henderson game cocks gave opposition to some of the guests in the orchard. We have not heard of any casualties other than Altha Clerkin who fled leaving her injuries behind her and James Shannon who may have suffered a torn pants leg. Mrs. Henderson explained the cocks beligerency. It seems that his wife had been missing for some weeks and she had returned to her mate the day before. He was very angry.

The guests assembled at the play house beside the lake with its bridge and fringe of trees. Paul Huber, society president, presided at the business meeting where proposed amendments were made for the By-Laws. Provisions were made for meetings on the last night of February, May, August and November. Paul presented the guest with all the marshmallows they could eat - stuck on sticks and grilled at the inside open fire and the outside fireplace. The mallows were good along with the warmth of the crackling fires and animated conversation. Food was spread on picnic tables and there was a continued passing of the coffee pots.

Our thanks to the Hendersons for a beautiful day.

THE BULLETIN

THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF DECATUR COUNTY

Vol. 1 - No. 3

Greensburg, Indiana

Sept. 29, 1959

Dear Reader:

Do you read with particular relish, books dealing with personalities of Civil War years? - Yes? Then, do read one which will introduce you to beautiful and clever Catherine Chase, who schemed relentlessly to attain her father's - and her own - ambition - which was to reside in that house in Washington, D.C., whose address is 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue.

It is a documented biography by Isabel Ross. The title is a brief but - oh so apt - description of Salmon P. Chase's daughter, - and I predict that you will really burn mid-night oil when you begin to read PROUD KATE.

In fact, this is a confession of what happened to your
Cousin Book-Worm.

THE LAST MEETING

The 70 members who attended our Aug. 4 meeting have had nothing but words of enthusiastic praise for the program of that evening. Mrs. Rena Mae Gilchrist Powell of Indianapolis proved that she knows much about - and enjoys telling others - the story of the Decatur County Craig Coverlets - and some very beautiful ones were on display. Then, Mr. Hubert Stuhrenberg, humorously but with sympathetic understanding of the situations and incidents that he described, directed our thoughts to the days of "away back when" Greensburg was beginning a history that is now 100 years old. It was an evening that our members will long remember.

OCCASION: An outing
SPEAKER: None
PLACE: "WOODLARKLAND"
RFD 6
Greensburg, Indiana
TIME: Sunday, October 11, 1959
2:00 PM prevailing Gbg. Time

The host as you might know is our good friend and member Grant Henderson. As stated in the July BULLETIN, this affair is to be a picnic and you are warned-bring your own food!(This is not a pitchin). If you have an aversion to ants and crickets, it is suggested that you bring your own table-a card table will do, and your folding chair, if you care to sit down.

ROUTE FROM GREENSBURG

Follow SR 46 to New Point. After passing the N.P. School on the right, turn left or North on a blacktop road one mile to Rossburg (cemetery). At the foot of the Rossburg hill, turn right or East on a blacktop road two miles to Enochsburg. (You will have crossed Salt Creek at the Iron Bridge-in 1838 "this was a place of excellent fording"). Turn left at Enochsburg Church (this beautiful stone structure was built in 1858) and follow the stone road (marked from Enochsburg)(FOLLOW THE YELLOW BANDS) almost three miles to WOODLARKLAND.

SUGGESTIONS

1. Bring cameras and color film.
2. Bring marshmallows.

BRING AS MANY GUESTS AS YOU LIKE.

TRI-FAMILY

The Donnell, Hamilton, and McCoy families have held annual reunions for over 75 years. At first, each family held its own reunion, with occasional merger meetings of the three families. In recent years, it has been a large and much looked-forward-to get-together, known as the Donnell-Hamilton-McCoy Tri Family Reunion. And it is interesting to note that many of today's descendants are members of all three families.

Programs of the reunions have been varied: some have been provided by talent in the membership, outside speakers of note have been presented, pageants have been given, regular church services have been included. This year, devotionals and prayers were given by very young descendants of these three old families.

SLAVERY IN DECATUR COUNTY? - The will of William Henry, recorded in the Decatur County courthouse, states that the two black children, bound to him by the Court in Kentucky, should be left to his daughter.

MECHANICSBURG

The seventh annual reunion of former students and teachers of the Mechanicsburg school was held at New Point on Sunday, September 20th, with fifty in attendance. This country school was closed in the Spring of 1932. The last teacher was the late Bessie Osting. The next reunion will be held as usual on the third Sunday in September 1960. Mrs. Lulu Luther is the incoming president.

DINNER MEETING IN NOVEMBER!
CHRISTMAS!

OCTOBER

Good morning, October! I knew that we'd see
You right on your toes when the hard maple tree
Grew yellow and brown and the wind, bearing down
Cast abroad on the lea
The leaves that in summer were green as could be.
I saw you last night. You were touching the lawn
With tints of rich color. "September's withdrawn,"
You claimed, with a shout, "I have put her to rout!"
And as white as a swan
Was frost, chilling frost, on the meadows at dawn.
I'm sure then, October, quite sure that you knew
That we have been waiting and watching for you!
And, now you are here, you have ripened the pear,
And the butternuts. Who
Was thinking of paw-paws? They're mellowing, too!
Good morning, October! Again I must say
You're welcome, quite welcome. Ah, Siren, I may Be tempted to shun all the work to be done --
Work? I can't work today!
You've won me, October! Let's hasten away!

JUNIOR HISTORICAL SOCIETY NAMES KUHNES

Initial steps in the organization of a Decatur County Junior Historical Society were taken at a meeting held Thursday evening at the YMCA.

A constitution was adopted and Val D. Kuhnes was named adult advisor of the junior organization, sponsored by the Historical Society of Decatur County. It will be an affiliate of the Indiana Junior Historical Society.

All high school students and teachers of schools in Decatur county interested in historical study are eligible for membership, it was announced.

A committee to visit schools in the interest of obtaining members was named as follows: Sue Porter, Joyce Allen and Janice Phelps.

Officers will be elected at the next meeting Oct. 9 at 7:00 PM at the YMCA

GREENSBURG DAILY NEWS, SEPT. 25, 1959.

THE EARLY BIRDS

Strange to say the early birds of this organization come in the fall. They are members who pay their 1960 membership fee early and in advance. These nice birds do not require the membership committee to spend their time, plus stationary and four to eight cents postage to get them back in the fold and in good standing. Rare birds - these early birds. They are to date:

Ethel Yale Ross
Florine Siling Eckel
Paul H. Huber

P.S. - We are solvent and have money in the bank.

MORE ABOUT THE OUTING!!!

ROUTE FROM KINGSTON

Go East from Kingston about 4 miles until you intersect an angling T-road (Joe Kramer corner), bear to the right (Southeasterly) go about 1 mile until you intersect a T-road. Here turn left or North one-quarter mile to the first road to the right. Thence East one-half mile to the first road to the right or South. Thence South one-half mile to WOODLARKLAND.

If you find yourself in Hamburg you are lost!! You are three miles from WOODLARKLAND!!!

PLEASE NOTE - A caravan will leave at 1:30 PM from 323 N. Broadway, Greensburg, for those interested.

THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF DECATUR COUNTY

Vol. 1 - No. 1

Greensburg, Indiana

May 26, 1959

THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Ben Franklin once said "We have given you a Republic, if you can keep it so". Analagous to this we have been given an organization to be known as the Historical Society of Decatur County. Its purpose as set out in the Constitution "shall be to perpetuate historical knowledge and points of interest in Decatur County, to arouse greater interest among the people of the county in the study of pioneer history of Decatur County, and the State of Indiana, and to instill in our youth a greater appreciation of their Hoosier and American heritage". Can there be better motives than these? Given this fine organization, with its high ideals and fine membership - can we keep it so? Our efforts must be directed to that end!

There is a poplar tree near Waterloo, N.Y., where a young soldier in the Civil War hung his scythe with the request that it not be removed until he returned. He didn't return. The growing tree has now almost enveloped the scythe.

BOUQUET OF THE MONTH

Mrs. Ina S. Wirt for her thirty-one members.

Paul O. Jolliff for his fifteen members and for having served twenty-five years continuously as superintendent of the Sandusky Methodist Sunday School. What a record.

OCCASION: Regular (May) Meeting
SPEAKER: Hubert H. Hawkins
PLACE: Billings Elementary School
W. Washington St.
TIME: Friday - June 5, 1959
Business: 7:30 P.M.
Program: 8:00 P.M.

Mr. Hawkins is a former professor of history at Butler University and a native of Marion County. An honor graduate of DePauw, he received a scholarship to Western Reserve, from which he has his Masters Degree in history. After teaching a year each at State Teachers College, Buffalo, and the University of Pennsylvania, he served three years in the army and there earned the Bronze Star Medal. He has been the Director of the Indiana Historical Bureau since September, 1953. A Hoosier, as near to us as Marion County, and well grounded in American History, Mr. Hawkins' message should be a treat for our first regular meeting. His subject-"Fun and Frolic on the Frontier".

BRING AS MANY GUESTS AS YOU LIKE.
EVERYBODY IS WELCOME.

Please note that the Billings Elementary School is on W. Washington St., just off of U.S. 421 and that there are ample off-street parking facilities East of the building. The entrance is on Washington St. and the meeting will be held in the Multi-Purpose Room. NO SMOKING PLEASE!
